Regular Agenda:
Proclamation of October as Community Planning Month
Ms. Sicks noted that in past years, MCRPC has done formal events during the month of October for Community Planning Month. This year, however, staff will be consulting with both the Town of Normal and City of Bloomington to schedule at least one event.

Mr. Teichman called for a motion to approve the Proclamation of October as Community Planning Month. Ms. Hauman moved for approval of the Proclamation of October as Community Planning Month. Ms. Kramp seconded the motion, which passed unanimously.
Items of Information or Discussion:

Complete Count Committee (CCC) update
Ms. Cooper and Ms. Gibson provided an update on the CCC. Update topics included: MCRPC's role, the different subcommittees, and the IDHS grant application.

Ms. Hauman inquired when the rural outreach subcommittee would be. Ms. Cooper responded that it is scheduled for the morning of September 11 at LeRoy High School. Ms. Cooper also noted that commissioners are welcome to attend.

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) consolidated plan update
Ms. Gibson provided an update on the CDBG consolidated plan. Update topics included: a background on the consolidated plan, the outreach process (surveys, public meetings, focus groups, etc.), presentation at a HUD conference, and the analysis document. She noted that the next steps are presentations to Town of Normal and City of Bloomington councils and then wrapping up the plan.

That which may arise
Mr. Teichman announced that Ms. Anderson will be leaving MCRPC and Timothy Riley will be starting full time.

Ms. Brown announced that the McLean County Hazardous Waste Collection is Saturday, September 7th, 2019. It is by appointment only. She then handed out fliers.
